CHINESE WAITERS' DISPUTE

Five Men Charged With Murder.

Five Chinese were placed in the dock at the Criminal Sessions, before the Acting Chief Justice (Mr H. H. G. Gompertz) to. day, on charges of murder and assault in the Colony on December 15th last.

The Hon. Mr W. Rees Davies, K. C., (Attorney General) prosecuted for the Crown, being instructed by Mr H. L. Dennys, Jr., from the office of the Crown Solicitor; Mr Leo D'Almada, who prosecuted at the police Court, watched the case on behalf the prosecution; while Mr Eldon Potter, instructed by Mr Otto Kong Sing, defended all the prisoners.

The following gentlemen were empanelled as the jury : - Mesars J. D. Auld (foreman), A. Lopes, E. M. Hayward, T. Meek, R. Perrie. A. Kohler and J. H. Bulmer. Hon. Attorney General said the affair seemed to have originated owing to bad feeling between two Waiters! Guilds, namely the Hung Tai, to which all the prisoners belonged, and the Lok Hing Tong, of which deceased was a member. How the bad feeling originated there was no evidence to show. The facts were spoken to by deceased, who made certain depositions before a Magistrate while lying in the Government Civil Hospital, on September 18th, in the presence of all the accused; and by a man HERBERT named Li Shing, a friend of deceased, who belonged to the same guild. These two men where together when the affair took place. There were also two other eyeto seeing all five prisoners taking part while he other identified three of the men-No. 2, No. 4 and No. 5. It appeared that on the 15th of September decessed and Li Shing were, at or about 5.30 in the afternuon, walking together near the junction of Hollywood Road and, Queen's Road West when they were met by the five prisoners in company with a number of others, who immediately set on deceased and Li Shing. All the five prisoners, it was alleged, had parious kinds of instruments in their possession in the shape of knives and pronged PURE Shing got away without receiving much damage and made for the Central Police Station. but deceased received a stab over the right hip bone. He too subsequently got away and also went to the Central Police Station. The same day he was admitted to the Government Civil Hospital, and was examined by Dr Moors on the following day. At that time the dector did not regard the wound as serious, and on that day deceased was allowed to attend wards, however, he was again brought to the Hospital, when he was found to be suffering from peritonitis. Thereupon Dr Koch, together with Dr Moors, parformed an operation on him, which was considered the only hope of saving his life, but he died on the following day.

That, was four days after the light. Station, but deceased received a stab over

That was four days after the night took place. A subsequent examination showed that the wound was more serious than Dr Moore had orginally diagnosed, it having penetrated the intestines, and the doctor would say that peritonitis was bound to follow in any case. He would also say that death was directly traceable to the wound. The case for the jury was purely one of identity. The whole question turned upon the point as to whether the five prisoners were there and whether all took part in the affray. It would be quite immaterial whether there were a number of others or not. The deceased in his depositions spoke definitely of No. 2 and No. 4 as having struck him, the former having cut him with an iron bar and the other having cut and stabbed him. He further said that the other three all took part in the assault. Li Shing would say that all the five men were present with eight or ton others, and that they were the first to strike the deceased. If the identity of the prisoners were established and it was proved that they were met together for a common purpose all would be guilty of homicide. What that homicide was whether it was murder or manslaughterwould depend on the circumstances. Evidence was called and the case ad

MADEO SOTES

(Mrone Our Oscie Correspondent.) Micio, October 18. The Reverend Father Wm. Arkwright, of St. Joseph's College, is back here after an eight months sojourn at Home and Japan. The boys are in raptures over the unlooked for return of their English master, who is much improved in health. A general stoppage of work on Satur day marked the birthday of the Downger Queen Maria Pia. A royal salute sounded at midday. In the evening the public buildings were slight with vari-coloured jets and crowds strolled on the foreshore where the band played before Government House.

.The same evening a passenger by the s.s. Sul Tal was said to have jumped overboard in mid sea and disappeared in spite of every effort to recover him on the part of the ship's officers and crew. Another mishap unattended with serious disaster occurred in the forenoon when the s.s. Sui An wasbeing moored to the quay. Mr A. O Britto, of the Bos Vista Hotel, missed his footing and slipped from the gangway into the harbour. He was promptly rescued by the coolies, the worse for a fractured finger and a bruised leg.

Whatever may be argued against any tangible headway being discernible at the new port over the way recent echoes attest at least that the warlike instructs of its builders are nowise dormant. A serious clash is reported from Houng Chow as having lasted from 7 a.m. till 2 p.m. en Wednesday last when 200 labourers hailing from Sunning pitched into 40 of their Hakha confreres. Workingtools, stones, every available weapon in short, were freely handled in the fray, and, needless to add, many were the gashes and distortions. It was not till the 200 men who were detailed to the spot from 818 the Katay and Chin San garrisons drove in on the combatants that the conflict was equelled and order restored. We now await the impressions of a party of excursionists who were over on Sunday, trusting they are going to treat us to something more engaging than the usual dead sea fruit.

I hear that weighty issues are expected to take shape at the next sitting of the Delimitation Commissioners at your end. His Excellency M. de Margerie, French Minister at the Court of Peking, cam over yesterday in the gunboat Patria on an official visit to H. E. the Governor o Macso, in company with Lieutenaut Roque, Consul General Liebert and Commdr. D. Cinatti (Assistant Delimitation Commissioner). The Patria saluted as the Minister stepped into the launch, where he was welcomed by Lieutenants Ruells, A.D.C., and Venture R.N. who were especially 1307 detailed to attend on him, and Mr da Ross, French Consular Agent. As the party landed at the raval pier 19 guns sounded from the Barra Fort, while the military band struck up the Marseil- just arriving, desires engagement. Excel-laise and the guard of honour presented arms. The latter was formed by the military Police Corps in full uniform under be strictly No. 1 merchantable and full size Captain Canavarro. After reviewing the and a certificate from the Pacific Eumber troops, the Minister headed for the Boa Vista Hotel in the Government House chair. Following a luncheon party on beard. the Patris the visitors were driven out in the Governor's trap during the afternoon to do the sights, being escorted by Lieut. Ruella, A.D.C., Commdr. Cinatti and Lieut-Ventura. At 3 p.m. H. E. Minister de Margeric called on the Governor with Ligut. Roque and Consul General Liebert. H. E. HONGKONG V. BUYFS.

Just as the whistle sounded for the commencement of the match between Hongkong and the Buffs on Saturday afternoon a driveling and unpleasant rain fell, which a compelled many spectators present to seek shelter

The teams lined out as follows :--Hongxond. -J. Clark : F. G. Carroll and . McCubbin; H. W. Kilby, R. C. Barlow and A Gregory; A. Altcheson and W Weston; A. Whitmarsh; E. A. May and J. D. Danby.

They immediately invaded the territory of the Buffs but through the instrumentality of Ruler and Bartlet Swards By this time the leather was becoming somewhat slippery and the Buffe were much surer of foot. Racing up the field the leather skidded off the foot of McOubbin and glided into the net and later Clark was twice beaten by Taylor, the score thus being three goals to hil in favour of the soldiers Ta

Romeo scored a powerful right to the throat in the fourth. Willis tried similar punch put Romeo was not there However he scored three solid left jabe each of which sent the American's head back with a jerk. The fifth round was all Willis's. He scored freely with his left and floored his man, for eight seconds, with a right swing. He caught the American again on rising with a left and a short right jolt. Romeo replied with a good right cross, the only blow he landed during the round. Romeo was down for four seconds in the sixth. Both men cautioned for wrestling. A good right by Romeo brought forth applause. He landed another in the eighth round but continually ran into Willis's left jabe. Willis failed in trying to upper cut in the ninth, Romeo just clearing in time. Clinches were very frequent. Comment was made on Romeo's peculiar way of taking time: he appeared to play for a foul. In the last round Willia anded an upper out and scored freely with is left. JAPAN'S MEED OF A SENSE OF JUSTICE.

The recent work of ex-Foreign Minister Count Haysabi on the aneodotes of famous Western statesmen furnishes the Tokyo Asahe, as we learn from a summary in the Japan Times, occasion for dilating upon the necessity of supplementing the accepted standard of virtue-Chuke, - filial duty and loyalty to superiors-by the clear sense of righteousness. Justice is the basic idea of the political life of the West and of constitutional regime. It has been implanted in the European mind from the days previous to their conversion to Christianity, and survives and sustain their political and social life. In Japan the virtue of righteousness fell into a secondary significance while, under the feudal system, the ruling philosophy for individual conduct and government was loyalty above all things to parents and master. Tet, justice has been as much extelled in the East as obedience or loyalty; in fact Confucianism couples justice with mercy as the two virtues forming the basis of good go. vernment. Japan, the paper goes on, has, now committed herself to establishing the standard of public morality by legal codes and national constitution. The people must now revive the sense of justice in order to make the legal regime a success. It is lack of the strong sense of right and wrong and too clover appreciation of profit and loss that has led to the present disgrace of publicists and a high class retired officer in the eyes of the public. The education of the younger generation is

THE DESTINY OF CHINA. THAT the future looms big with promise for the peoples forming the grand aggregate of the Chinese Empire is at certain as that the sun is in the heavens. This very ancient race, for good or ill is about to enter upon a Benaissance slightly-i.e., a girl from a bad home which will profoundly affect the future of the world. Another commendable rescue was effected by the a.s. Mathilde, who on the voyage from Hollow was able to secure four junks which she towed into harbour yesterday. These were crowded with Chinese. Yesterday about noon H.M.S. "Ragnar" was ashore on Money Island. On arrival at the scene of the disaster she found twenty three of the Chinese members of the crew on Prattle Island. These men were taken en board and eventually brought to Hongkoug. in interesting to note that when the Flors haved in sight five of ment were out fishing and those left on the Island would not embarked till they saw their comrades taken on board. HONGKONG CHARITY CONCERT.

In aid of the Diocesan Girls' Orphanage concart conspicuous for its variety and Sponting. all round excellence was given in the Hong-Kong Volunteer Drill hall on Saturday might. It was originally intended that the event should take place on the parade ground, but the promoters felt that the Ensettled state of the weather rendered an autdoor concert inadvisable. There was a gratifying and representative audience. The instrumental portion of the programme was admirably sustained by the band of BRITISH POSTAL AGENCIES AND the Bulls Regiment, who were responsible for four items, all of which were given in their best style, the selection from 'Faust" being magnificently handled. The lady vocalists were Mrs E. G. Barrett and Miss Parke. The former gave a sweet and clear rendering of Florence Aylward's dainty song, "I gave you roses," for which she was elegazzedly recailed. Miss Parks mada par copy. or last appearance on the local concert form, appearing as a soloist as well as il association with other vocalists. She fully maintained her reputation as an artiste of taste and ability, her interpretation of Tosti's: "Good-bye" being sympathetic and invested with much feeling. As an encore she gave "Velia" with very happy effect. Her association with Messrs R. E. White and E. B.
